STEVE McSHANE SELECTED FOR McCLOY FELLOWSHIP

New York City, New York, – California Nurseryman, Steve McShane has been selected as a 2009 McCloy Fellow by the American Council on Germany.

The McCloy Fellowship is a one month intensive emersion that focuses on the exchange of policy, research and planning effecting domestic, continental and international agricultural issues effecting Germany and the United States. Four fellows are chosen each year from across the United States based on experience, interest and commitment to the field of agriculture. All expenses are covered by the American Council on Germany.

The Fellowship begins in Brussels, Belgium at the European Union Parliament. This is followed by extensive meetings throughout the Germany. “This fellowship is one of the greatest opportunities I’ve ever been presented,” shared McShane. “I’ll bring my passion for California Agriculture and the incredible diversity offered by the Salinas Valley,” continued McShane.

Steve McShane lives in Salinas, California and is the Owner and General Manager of McShane’s Nursery & Landscape Supply off Hwy. 68 in Salinas.
